

Terms and Conditions

Terms and Conditions for - Silver School Accreditation

As a Sounds-Write accredited school you agree to the following Terms and Conditions:

1. Public Listing: You agree to have your full school name, school website address, and location publicly listed on the Sounds-Write website, including on our interactive map.
2. Direct Contact: You agree to be contacted directly by schools for the purposes of providing opportunities to discuss or showcase best practices. The school will provide an email address for the purposes of direct contact.
3. Sounds-Write Logo and Text: You agree to display the Sounds-Write Silver Award logo and accompanying text on your school website and school letterhead as provided by Sounds-Write.
4. Networking opportunities. You agree to have a member of staff present at the termly network meetings to keep up to date with any new resources, courses and initiatives. Ideally this will be the phonics lead, but another teacher may attend if this is not possible.
5. Data Sharing: You agree to share the agreed anonymized pupil outcomes data with Sounds-Write using the data collection tool provided by us.

6. Communication Updates: You agree to opt-in to receive communication updates from Sounds-Write to stay informed about new resources, courses, and other relevant information.
7. Support and Advocacy: You agree to support and advocate for the effective implementation of Sounds-Write within your school and community.
8. Exclusive Use: You agree to use Sounds-Write exclusively in the school setting for teaching phonics in the first 3 years of school
9. Change of Phonics Lead/Literacy Lead: You agree to inform Sounds-Write of any changes to your Phonics Lead/ Literacy Lead.
10. Change of Headteacher/Principal: You agree to inform Sounds-Write of any changes to your Headteacher/ Principal.
11. Reaccreditation: You agree to participate in the biennial reaccreditation process
12. Development opportunities: You agree to be part of the development of new resources and courses, piloting them before they are available to purchase.
13. Case studies: You agree to take part in case studies or other research projects.

By becoming a Sounds-Write silver accredited school, Sounds-Write will:

1. Public Listing: List your school name, school website and school address publicly on the Sounds-Write website
2. Direct Contact: Put schools in touch with you via the provided email address for the purposes of providing opportunities to discuss or showcase best practices.

3. Sounds-Write Logo and Text: Provide you with the Sounds-Write Silver Award logo and accompanying text for use on your school website and school letterhead.
4. Data Sharing: Keep the shared anonymized pupil outcomes data confidential, unless otherwise agreed to by you.
5. Networking opportunities. Host a termly online network meeting for all our accredited schools to keep you up to date with any new resources, courses and initiatives.
6. Communication Updates: Send communication updates from Sounds-Write to keep you informed about new resources, courses, and other relevant information.
7. Change of Phonics Lead/Literacy Lead: Update our records with any changes to your Phonics Lead/ Literacy Lead.
8. Change of Headteacher/Principal: Update our records with any changes to your Headteacher/ Principal.
9. Reaccreditation: Support you in the biennial reaccreditation process
10. Development opportunities: Offer the opportunity to be part of the development of new resources and courses, piloting them before they are available to purchase.
11. Case studies: Provide the opportunity to take part in case studies or other research projects.

Terms and Conditions for Gold School Accreditation

As a Sounds-Write accredited school you agree to the following Terms and Conditions:

1. Public Listing: You agree to have your full school name, school website address, and location publicly listed on the Sounds-Write website.
2. Direct Contact: You agree to be contacted directly by schools for the purposes of providing opportunities to discuss or showcase best practices. The school will provide an email address for the purposes of direct contact.
3. Approved Materials: You agree to use Sounds-Write approved materials for all hosted events.
4. Staffing and Space: You agree to provide the necessary staffing and space to host visiting schools
5. Sounds-Write Logo and Text: You agree to display the Sounds-Write Gold Award logo and accompanying text on your school website and school letterhead as provided by Sounds-Write.
6. Data Sharing: You agree to share the agreed anonymized pupil outcomes data with Sounds-Write using the data collection tool provided by us.
7. Networking opportunities. You agree to have a member of staff present at the termly network meetings to keep up to date with any new resources, courses and initiatives. Ideally this will be the phonics lead, but another teacher may attend if this is not possible.
8. Communication Updates: You agree to opt-in to receive communication updates from Sounds-Write to stay informed about new resources, courses, and other relevant information.

9. Support and Advocacy: You agree to support and advocate for the effective implementation of Sounds-Write within your school and community.
10. Exclusive Use: You agree to use Sounds-Write exclusively in the school setting for teaching phonics in the first 3 years of school.
11. Change of Phonics Lead/Literacy Lead: You agree to inform Sounds-Write of any changes to your Phonics Lead/ Literacy Lead.
12. Change of Headteacher/Principal: You agree to inform Sounds-Write of any changes to your Headteacher/ Principal.
13. Reaccreditation: You agree to participate in the biennial reaccreditation process.
14. Development opportunities: You agree to be part of the development of new resources and courses, piloting them before they are available to purchase.
15. Case studies: You agree to take part in case studies or other research projects.
16. Annual review: You agree to Attend an online annual review with your named Sounds-Write trainer to discuss your progress and next steps for development.

By becoming a Sounds-Write gold accredited school, Sounds-Write will:

1. Public Listing: List your school name, school website and school address publicly on the Sounds-Write website.
2. Direct Contact: Put schools in touch with you via the provided email address for the purposes of providing opportunities to discuss or showcase best practices.

3. Approved Materials: Provide Sounds-Write approved materials for use when hosting events and marketing materials for sharing news with your stakeholders and school community.
4. Sounds-Write Logo and Text: Provide you with the Sounds-Write Gold Award logo and accompanying text for use on your school website and school letterhead.
5. Data Sharing: Keep the shared anonymized pupil outcomes data confidential, unless otherwise agreed to by you.
6. Networking opportunities. Host a termly online network meeting for all our accredited schools to keep you up to date with any new resources, courses and initiatives.
7. Communication Updates: Send communication updates from Sounds-Write to keep you informed about new resources, courses, and other relevant information.
8. Change of Phonics Lead/Literacy Lead: Update our records with any changes to your Phonics Lead/ Literacy Lead.
9. Change of Headteacher/Principal: Update our records with any changes to your Headteacher/ Principal.
10. Reaccreditation: Support you in the biennial reaccreditation process.
11. Development opportunities: offer the opportunity to be part of the development of new resources and courses, piloting them before they are available to purchase.
12. Case studies: Provide the opportunity to take part in case studies or other research projects.

13. Symposium: Provide a free All-Access-Pass to the Sounds-Write Symposium.

14. Point of contact: Provide a named Sounds-Write trainer for you to contact to ask questions.

15. Annual review: Host an online annual review with your named Sounds-Write trainer to discuss your progress and next steps for development.

16. Sounds-Write resources: Provide free samples of Sounds-write books and resources before they are available to purchase.